VOYCE offers Education throughout the year, helping everyone to better understand the rights of long-term care residents. We present Community Education webinars each month on patient care, legal, financial and social topics effecting long-term care residents and their families.

On June 15, 2022, VOYCE will host its Conference - CARE:Who We Are. What We Do. Where We Go From Here at Maryland Heights Community Center. The Conference will provide essential education for long-term care professionals.
